NOTIFICATION.

Calcutta, the 24th February 1941.

It is ordered by the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal that with effect from the date of this publication in the Calcutta Gazette the following amendments be effected in Chapter XXVII and Appendix J, Appendices (Part I) of the Rules of the High Court, Original Side, 1914 (4th Edition):—

Chapter XXVII.

The present rules 3, 9, 12, 13, 21 and 22 be repealed and in lieu thereof the following rules be substituted:—

Rule 3. Every such sale shall be to the best purchaser that can be got for the same, provided the Registrar shall consider that a sufficient sum has been offered, or in suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940, provided the price to be specified under Section 35 of that Act has been reached, or the decree-holder consents in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed as is equal to the difference between the highest amount bid and the price so specified.

Rule 9. The notification shall specify the time and place of sale, and shall contain description and particulars of the property, together with a statement that it is to be sold by or with the approbation of the Registrar pursuant to a decree or order of the Court, and of the manner in which it is proposed to lot the same. Where the property, or any portion of it, is to be sold subject to an incumbrance, the nature and amount of such incumbrance shall, as far as practicable, be also stated. In suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 the notification shall specify the extent of the property to be sold and the price thereof as calculated under the provisions of Section 35 of such Act.

Rule 12. Where a sale is ordered at the instance of a subsequent incumbrancer or of a mortgagor, or where a party having the carriage of the proceedings has obtained leave to bid, unless otherwise ordered, or unless dispensed with by the proper parties, a reserved price shall be fixed by the Registrar. The Registrar may also in any other case, in which it may be deemed necessary or desirable, fix a reserved price, provided that in suits governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 the reserved price shall be the price specified in accordance with Section 35 of that Act.

Rule 13. For the purpose of fixing a reserved price or a price to be specified under the provisions of the Bengal Money-Lenders Act the Registrar may, on notice to the parties, direct a valuation or a survey to be made of the property to be sold. The same shall be made by a surveyor or other competent person, to be appointed by the Registrar, who shall certify the result under his signature, and shall deliver or transmit such certificate to the Registrar under a sealed cover, with the words on the cover, "Private, and to be opened only by the Registrar". The Registrar may, where he shall think fit, require the certificate to be verified by an affidavit or affirmation of the valuer. In that case the certificate shall be referred to without being annexed to, or filed with the affidavit or affirmation, which shall be so prepared as not to disclose the contents of the certificate. On the reserved price or price to be so specified as aforesaid being fixed, the certificate shall be put up in a sealed cover and kept with the proceedings.

Rule 21. Where there is no bid, or where the highest bid is below the reserved price (if any) or be deemed insufficient by the Registrar or in cases governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940 where the price specified has not been reached or the decree-holder has not consented in writing to forego so much of the amount decreed as is equal to the difference between the highest amount bid and the price so specified, the Registrar shall postpone the sale, and record the reason for such postponement in his note-book.

Provided that where the highest bid is below the reserved price and where for any reason to be recorded by him the Registrar is of opinion that the same should be accepted, he may accept it subject to confirmation by a Judge.

Rule 22. Where the highest bid is equal to or higher than the reserved price (if any), or is deemed sufficient by the Registrar or where, in sales held in pursuance of decrees governed by the Bengal Money-Lenders Act X of 1940, the price to be specified has been reached or the provisions of the proviso to Section 35 of the Act have been applied, the Registrar shall, subject to the provisions of rule 23, make an entry in the note-book to the following effect:—

"I declare A. B. to be the purchaser of the property comprised in lot                      for the sum of Rs.                      " adding in a case within the proviso to rule 21 the words "subject to confirmation by a Judge".

Appendix J.

For condition 2 to form No. 1, the following be substituted:—

2. The sale is subject to a reserved bidding/specified price which has been fixed by the Registrar.

By order of the Full Court,

NOTIFICATION.

New Delhi, the 20th January, 1941.

No. F.-104-I/41-A.—Under rule 18 of the Indian Legislative Rules, the Governor General has been pleased to order the publication in the Gazette of India of the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons relating thereto, and the Bill and the Statement of Objects and Reasons are accordingly published for general information:—

L. A. BILL No. 1 OF 1941.

A Bill to provide for the reduction temporarily of the amounts payable as instalments of the sum to be deposited by an insurer under section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938.

WHEREAS, in consequence of conditions arising out of the present war, it is expedient to provide for the reduction temporarily of the amounts payable as instalments of the sum to be deposited by an insurer under section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938;

IV of 1938.

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Insurance Deposits (Temporary Reduction) Act, 1941.

(2) It extends to the whole of British India.

Definition.

2. In this Act "insurer" means an insurer as defined in clause (9) of section 2 of the Insurance Act, 1938, IV of 1938, except that it does not include a Mutual Insurance Company or a Co-operative Life Insurance Society to which Part IV of that Act applies.

Reduction of instalments of deposit.

3. (1) An insurer entitled to the benefits of this Act shall, subject to the provisions of section 5, be deemed in respect of any instalment of the deposit to be made by him under section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938, IV of 1938, which he was required to pay during the year commencing on the 1st day of January, 1940, or which he may be required to pay at any time after the end of that year and so long as this section continues to have effect, to have complied with the provisions of the said section 7 as to payment of instalments of deposits, if he has paid or pays in accordance with the provisions of that section not less than one half the total amount which would have been required by that section as the instalment, had the insurer not availed himself of the provisions of this Act.

(2) If an insurer entitled to the benefits of this Act, when paying an instalment of deposit, has, in respect of any instalment due during the year commencing on the 1st day of January, 1940, paid more than one half the total amount required by the said section 7 as the instalment, he may at his option have the amount of any such surplus payment appropriated to the payment of the next or any subsequent instalment of deposit required from him under the said section 7 read with sub-section (1) of this section.

(3) This section shall cease to have effect on the expiration of one year from such date as may be fixed, for the purposes of this Act, by the Central Government by notification in the official Gazette as the date of termination of the present hostilities.

Insurers entitled to the benefits of this Act.

4. An insurer shall be entitled to the benefits of this Act only if—

- (a) he carries on life insurance business only, and
- (b) the date on which he first assumed risk on any policy issued by him was earlier than the 3rd day of September, 1939, but not earlier than the 3rd day of September, 1929.

Cesser of title to the benefits of this Act.

5. (1) An insurer otherwise entitled to the benefits of this Act shall cease to be so entitled in any year if in the preceding year his total premium income, including annuity considerations, as shown in the revenue-account prepared under the Insurance Act, IV of 1938, exceeded rupees thirty thousand.

(2) An insurer otherwise entitled to the benefits of this Act shall cease to be so entitled in respect of any future instalment—

- (a) if after the 1st day of January, 1941, he declares any bonus or dividend at a rate higher than the rate at which such bonuses or dividends were last declared by him before the 3rd day of September, 1939, or
- (b) if the proportion of his renewal premium income spent by him in payment of commission and other expenses including capital expenditure, determined in accordance with Rule 25 of the Insurance Rules, 1939, exceeds in any year the proportion as so determined for the accounting period ending on the 31st day of December, 1939.

Resumption
instalments in accordance

6. (1) When section 3 ceases to have effect, or if before that date an insurer ceases under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 5 to be entitled to the benefits of this Act, instalments of deposits shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938 (except that no insurer shall be required to pay as an instalment an amount exceeding the amount which would have been payable by him had he not availed himself of the provisions of this Act), until the last instalment required to be paid under the said section 7 has been paid, and the balance of the deposit then remaining unpaid in consequence of the reduced instalments authorised under this Act shall be paid by the insurer in such further instalments, of such amount and at such times, as the Central Government may direct.

IV of 1938.

(2) If while section 3 continues to have effect an insurer ceases in any year under sub-section (1) of section 5 to be entitled to the benefits of this Act, instalments of deposit in that year shall be paid by him in accordance with the provisions of section 7 of the Insurance Act, 1938, except that he shall not be required to pay as an instalment an amount exceeding the amount which would have been payable by him had he not availed himself of the provisions of this Act, and the provisions of sub-section (1) of this section shall apply to the payment by such insurer of any balance of the deposit due from him which remains unpaid after the last instalment required to be paid under the said section 7 has been paid.

IV of 1938.

Saving in respect of delayed payments of

7. For the purposes of the Insurance Act, 1938, an insurer entitled to the benefits of this Act who has failed to pay before the 1st day of January, 1941, an instalment of deposit due in the year 1940 shall not be liable to any consequences on that account in respect of a failure to comply with the provisions of section 7 of the said Act as to deposits if before the 15th day of February, 1941, he has paid as such instalment not less than one half the total amount required by the said section 7.

IV of 1938.

Removal of difficulties.

8. If any difficulty arises in determining the amount payable as an instalment of deposit by an insurer under this Act, the matter shall be decided by the Central Government whose decision shall be final.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As a result of falling business and lapsing of policies, due to war conditions, those young proprietary insurance companies whose business is relatively small are finding it difficult to pay the fixed amounts of the periodical instalments of the deposits required by the Insurance Act, 1938, and are therefore in need of some relief. The object of this Bill is to reduce for the duration of the war and one year afterwards the instalments of deposits due from such insurers carrying on life insurance business only, subject to the provision of certain safeguards to prevent advantage being taken of the concession to incur increased expenditure or liabilities of an unjustifiable nature.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Insurance Act of 1938 in respect of (a) a considerable number of matters in regard to which amendment is necessary in order to remove flaws and administrative difficulties which have come to light during the eighteen months for which the Act has been in operation, and (b) some other matters in respect of which further provision is considered desirable.

2. Some of the more pressing amendments have already been dealt with in previous Amending Bills. The remainder are now included in this comprehensive Bill.

3. The principal amendments included in this Bill provide for (a) grant of permission to the public to inspect or get copies on payment of a fee of documents filed by insurers; (b) imposing on those types of business, which though classed as "Miscellaneous Insurance" are susceptible in some degree of actuarial valuation, actuarial requirements as similar as may be to those to which Life Insurance business is already subject; (c) extension of the time for the submission of valuation returns under section 15 in all cases to 9 months; (d) fixation of a time limit of 3 months within which appeals to Court must be made against the orders of the Superintendent of Insurance; (e) extension of the power to order a revaluation under section 22 to all valuations of insurers; (f) recovery of the expenses of investigations ordered under section 33 as arrears of land-revenue; (g) allowing the age of the insured to be proved at any time after the issue of a policy; (h) clarification of section 48 relating to the election of policy-holders' directors; (i) protection of the interests of the policy-holders concerned when an insurer or a provident society ceases to carry on insurance business on the dividing principle; (j) co-ordination of the provisions applicable to insurers and those applicable to provident societies; (k) extension of the principle of a guaranteed surrender value to whole-life policies also; (l) removal of a legal difficulty which prevents defining which of the particular transactions of an insurer are to be considered as transacted in British India or India, as the case may be; (m) extension of the power of granting reciprocal exemptions under section 116 to provident societies also; (n) an amendment of section 7 so as to allow the Reserve Bank to charge their normal commission on the sale of, or investment in, securities which they are required to sell or invest under that section on the request of an insurer.

4. The Bill also provides for an annual fee for renewal of registration of insurers and provident societies and for an increase of the fee charged for agents' licences. These provisions are necessary in order to increase the realisations under the Act so as to cover the present direct cost of administration.

5. In addition to the above points, several defects of a technical nature are also dealt with.

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) rectifies an omission while the amendment in sub-clause (b) substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 3.—Sub-clause (a) removes doubts about the validity of policy-contracts entered into after the expiry of the period of three months mentioned in section 3(1) by certain insurers who failed to obtain a certification of registration even by the 10th May 1940. The object is to secure that the policy-holders do not suffer while the insurers can be dealt with, where necessary, under sub-sections (5B) and (5D) of section 3. Sub-clause (b) increases the registration fee for each class of business to Rs. 500 for new insurers, while sub-clauses (c), (d) and (e) supply provisions covering the consequences of failure to renew registration, including provisions for revival of registration in some cases and for the winding up of the insurers in others.

Clause 4.—The insertion of the new section provides for the annual registration of insurers on payment of a prescribed fee on a sliding scale, but not exceeding Rs. 1,000 for each class of business, and also for late applications for renewal.

Clause 7.—The addition makes clear that the Reserve Bank of India is entitled to charge the normal commission on purchase and sale of securities made on the request of insurers.

Clause 8.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) enables the Central Government to provide for the keeping of a separate account of such sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance business as are capable of actuarial valuation, except where the Superintendent of Insurance considers the business is too small for that requirement. Sub-clauses (b) and (c) rectify minor verbal inaccuracies.

Clause 9.—The amendments in sub-clause (a) are consequential to sub-clause (a) of clause (8). Sub-clause (b) removes an ambiguity.

Clause 10.—The addition provides for the actuarial valuation of those sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance which are susceptible of such valuation and also for exemption where the business is too small to justify such a requirement.

Clause 11.—The amendments extend the time for submission of valuation returns by insurers.

Clause 12.—Sub-clause (a) supplies a drafting omission. Sub-clauses (b) and (c) extend the provisions of section 16 to the sub-clauses of miscellaneous insurance for which provision is made by the amendment proposed to section 10(J) by sub-clause (a) of clause (8) and also rectify some drafting omissions.

Clause 15.—The insertion extends the powers of the Superintendent of Insurance to all valuations of insurers.

Clause 17.—The addition makes it clear that the alterations have also to be authenticated and certified in the same manner as the originals.

Clause 18.—The amendments are designed to release insurers from the necessity of furnishing the detailed particulars necessary to establish that they have complied with section 27 twice in the year provided that they supply quarterly particulars of assets held invested by them under that section but permits the Superintendent of Insurance to call for the detailed particulars twice a year wherever necessary.

Clause 19.—The addition makes it clear that a director is not debarred from taking a loan on his life policy within its surrender value, notwithstanding section 86D of the Indian Companies Act.

Clause 20.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) enables an auditor or an actuary for an investigation under section 33 to be appointed alternatively or simultaneously or one after the other in any order. The addition in sub-clause (b) provides a period of limitation for an application to Court against the action of the Superintendent of Insurance. The amendment in sub-clause (c) removes drafting lacunæ.

The amendment in sub-clause (e) specifies in greater detail the documents required.

The addition in sub-clause (d) provides for issue of a duplicate if the original licence is lost, destroyed or mutilated.

Clause 32.—The amendment removes the inconvenience resulting from the fact that the provisions of the section are mandatory.

Clause 33.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) makes it clear that a company cannot interfere with the manner prescribed for the election of policy-holder directors. The first insertion in sub-clause (b) enables all policy-holders entitled to vote or stand for election to exercise their rights and prevents any "watering" of the list of voters or candidates, while the second insertion provides for suitable exemptions in certain cases which are found in practice to give rise to practical difficulties.

Clause 34.—The substitution specifies more clearly than at present the circumstances under which dividends and bonuses may be paid and the circumstances under which and the limit within which debentures may be serviced.

Clause 35.—The addition provides for dispensing with notice by an insurer in a case where it is obviously unnecessary.

The first amendment in sub-clause (b) supplies two omissions while the second amendment provides for the cancellation of registration without formal notice to the society or an application to the Court in certain necessary cases. Sub-clause (c) makes detailed provision for the consequences of a cancellation of registration, including provision for the revival of registration in some cases.

Clause 40.—The first section inserted by this clause provides for annual renewal of registration of provident societies on the same lines as clause 4 does for insurers. The second section inserted by this clause requires full particulars as to address, directors, persons in charge, etc., to be supplied by provident societies already registered and provides for maintaining a correct record of such particulars.

Clause 54 saves "mutual" insurers the duty and expense of sending copies of accounts to all their members as a matter of course but gives every member the right to receive a copy of the accounts on application.

Clause 55 supplies some verbal omissions and substitutes a more apt expression.

Clause 56.—Sub-clauses (a) and (b) rectify verbal defects and sub-clause (c) makes provisions similar to those applicable to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 57 makes the existing provision of section 105 referring to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 58 enables an application to court under section 106 to be made also by the Superintendent of Insurance, and makes the section applicable to provident societies as well as to insurers.

Clause 59 makes the existing provisions of section 107 referring to insurers applicable to provident societies also.

Clause 60.—Sub-clause (a) provides for an appeal against a refusal by the Superintendent of Insurance to renew registration of an insurer and sub-clause (b) provides a period of limitation of 3 months for appeals under section 110.

Clause 61.—Sub-clause (a) recasts and clarifies sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 113, at the same time extending the existing right of a guaranteed surrender value to holders of whole-life policies also. It is also made clear that the provisions apply to holders of policies issued by provident societies and not merely those issued by insurers. Provision is made for the guaranteed surrender value to be shown on the policy in the prescribed manner. Sub-clause (b) is mainly consequential.

Clause 62.—The amendment in sub-clause (a) removes an obscurity of wording which had caused some practical difficulty. Sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 63 makes section 116 applicable also to provident societies.

Clause 64.—The new section inserted is consequential on clause 16. It reproduces section 24 in clearer form and provides that the voluminous returns under section 28 need not be published.

Clause 65 extends the provisions of section 117 to provident societies.

Clause 66 enables the Superintendent of Insurance when granting exemption under section 118 to impose conditions or to make suitable modifications of the provisions still left operative.

Clause 67.—The existing section 119 being redundant when read with section 3(2)(f) is repealed and in its place a new provision is inserted providing that the public may inspect or obtain copies of documents filed under section 3(2)(f).

Clause 68 amends the Indian Limitation Act to provide that the period of limitation shall run in the case of a life policy from the date of death of the life insured instead of from the date when proof of such death is given. The policies affected are no longer described as those under which the sum insured is paid immediately after proof of the death.

Clause 69.—Sub-clauses (a) and (c) are consequential on sub-clause (a) of clause 8. Sub-clause (b) supplies an omission.

Clause 70.—Sub-clauses (a) and (b) are consequential on sub-clause (a) of clause 8. In sub-clause (c) the first three amendments rectify verbal defects while the last one makes the explanation of the terms "Business within India" and "Business out of India" applicable in the case of all insurers.

Clause 71.—The first amendment in sub-clause (a) and the amendments in sub-clauses (b) and (c) remove verbal defects and the second amendment in sub-clause (a) abolishes a requirement which is unnecessary in connection with valuation returns. Sub-clause (d) substitutes a new Form G for the existing Form G in the Fourth Schedule to the Act making it consistent with Form D which is submitted annually with the same information. Sub-clause (c) makes clear how Form J is to be prepared.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 10th February 1941.

Summary.—Excepting heavy showers in parts of East Bengal, the rainfall during the week was generally light and scattered. It has facilitated the field operations for autumn crops and beneficial to the standing crops generally. In parts of Tippera and Tripura State, spring crops have been greatly damaged by hailstorm. Cutting and pressing of sugarcane are progressing. In Murshidabad and Birbhum, 3,038 and 5,614 persons were employed respectively in test relief work on Saturday, the 15th February 1941. In Birbhum 2,219 persons received gratuitous relief. The average price of common rice for the province this week is about 8 seers per rupee. It has fallen by about 0·06 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Assembly; Reports of Select Committees presented or to be presented to that Assembly; and Bills published before introduction in that Assembly.

BENGAL LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY

NOTIFICATION.

No. 924L.A.—3rd March 1941.—The following report of the Select Committee on the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Bill, 1940, with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by the Committee, is hereby published for general information.

The Report of the Select Committee on the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Bill, [1940.] 1941.

We, the members of the Select Committee, to which the Calcutta Municipal (Amendment) Bill, 1940, was referred by a motion carried in the Bengal Legislative Assembly on the 10th September, 1940, have the honour to submit this our final report with the Bill embodying amendments recommended by us. Matter recommended to be omitted by us has been printed in italics and included in square brackets and new matter recommended by us to be inserted has been underlined.

The Committee met and began their deliberations on the Bill for the first time at 11 a.m. on the 4th December, 1940, and thereafter on the 5th December, 1940, and on the 6th January, 1941.

As the Committee could not come to a final decision on all the provisions of the Bill by the 31st January, 1941, the time appointed by the Assembly for the purpose, an ad interim report was presented to the House and the time for submitting the final report was extended till the 28th February, 1941.

The Committee thereafter met from time to time till the 26th February, 1941, when they concluded their deliberations on the Bill.

The Bill was published in the Calcutta Gazette before introduction on the 13th June, 1940, and we do not consider it to have been so altered by our recommendations as to require republication.

The reasons for the changes suggested in the Bill, apart from those of a purely drafting or consequential nature, are as follows:—

Clause 1.

The alteration in the date of the Act has been necessitated by the lapse of time since the introduction of the Bill.

Clause 3.

This clause has been deleted in consequence of the deletion of the proposed new section 19B recommended by us in clause 6.

Clause 5.

We thought it desirable to exclude the few words at the end of the proposed section 19 to avoid any possibility of undesirable controversies.

Clause 6.

The proposed new section 19B was intended as an extreme measure against "incompetence, persistent default in the performance of duties and abuse or excess of powers". In our opinion, the existing provisions of the Act together with the reformatory and penalising provisions introduced by the Bill, including the control of important appointments and supersession of a Department under certain circumstances, are expected, to provide sufficient safeguards against the charges usually made against the Corporation and we have considered it expedient to give the new conditions a fair trial before thinking of a clause for dissolution of the Corporation. We have, therefore, recommended the deletion of this prima facie drastic provision from the present Bill.

Clause 7.

In sub-clause (1) we have changed "six" to "four" in order to further extend the franchise under clause (a) of section 20 of the Act and particularly in view of the fact that there is no class of licenses for the exercise or carrying on of professions, trades or callings for which a fee of six rupees is payable under Schedule VI of the Act.

Sub-clause (2).—We did not consider it advisable to reduce the rent-qualification under section 20(b) as we were apprehensive of unscrupulous owners taking advantage of such reduction. We have, therefore, recommended deletion of the sub-clause.

Sub-clause (3).—While accepting the principle of reduction of the rate qualification contemplated by the original sub-clause we considered it desirable also to do away with the necessity of an application for registration required by the present law as all necessary particulars for such registration are available from the Busti Inspection Registers maintained by the Corporation. We have accordingly taken the opportunity of revising the entire sub-clause (c) of section 20.

Sub-clause (4).—In our opinion franchise contemplated by the proposed new sub-clause (d) to section 20 should have a lower rent-qualification for more adequate representation of the persons coming under this sub-clause and we have reduced it from rupees five, as originally proposed, to rupees three. The necessity for an application for registration as provided is expected to be a safeguard, in this instance, against abuse.

Clause 8.

Sub-clause 2.—In our opinion, the mere dismissal of a servant of the Crown unless such dismissal was on a charge involving moral turpitude should not render him ineligible for election or appointment as a Councillor or for election as an Alderman and we have amended the sub-clause accordingly.

Clause 9.

We have inserted a proviso to the proposed new section 36 (1). This is intended to provide for the proper representation of the particular constituency involved.

Clauses 10 and 12.

The provisos to the proposed sections 37 (4) and 39 (2) have been deleted consequentially on the deletion of the proposed new section 19B in clause 6.

Clause 13.

The amendment in this clause is intended to make the provision more stringent in view of the alarming increase in arrears of dues from some of the existing Councillors and Aldermen who are, by virtue of their office, in a more advantageous position than an outsider and are expected to set an example in the matter of payment of their legal dues.

Clause 14.

The deletion has been necessitated by the amendment recommended by us in clause 6 of this Bill.

New clause 16A.

While considering clauses 15 and 16 of the Bill we thought it desirable to take the opportunity of laying down the special procedure to be adopted in election petitions for further scrutiny and recount of votes and the new section 47A has been inserted for this purpose. Among others a preliminary deposit of one thousand rupees as security for costs, counting and scrutiny of votes by the Court, rejection of votes obtained by corrupt practice, casting of vote by lot in case of equality have been provided for after careful consideration.

In the proposed new section 47B we have made clear provisions as to costs and compensation in election cases to avoid any possibility of ambiguity in relation to these matters.

Clause 17.

The sub-clause (ii) of the proviso to the proposed new section 51 (1) has been deleted in view of the fact that the Committee were strongly of opinion, without casting any reflection on the capacities of the members of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive), that the Chief Executive Officer to be appointed by Government must, for the first few years at any rate, be a member of the Indian Civil Service. Other sources of recruitment for the post should be considered only after the affairs of the Corporation have been brought to a smooth and satisfactory working order.

Clause 18.

We have deleted the last few lines of the proposed new section 51A(3) as we considered it undesirable to tie the hands of Government in this matter.

The explanation to the proviso to the proposed new section 51B(1) has been inserted with a view to avoid any possibility of circumvention in the matter of temporary appointments.

Some new posts have been included in sub-section (3) of the proposed section 51B, as well as in the proviso thereto, as we thought these were of sufficient importance to be covered by the provisions of this sub-section.

In the proposed new section 51C(2) we have added a proviso giving to any officer or servant of the Corporation, aggrieved by any order of the Executive Officer, a right of appeal to the Corporation. This is expected to operate as a check against any hasty or arbitrary action on the part of the Chief Executive Officer.

Clause 22.

This clause had to be deleted in view of the deletion of the provision for dissolution of the Corporation.

Clause 23.

We have considered it expedient to add an explanatory clause to the proviso that the voting shall be by secret ballot. The intention is to obviate as far as practicable any undue influence or interference, in the matter of free exercise of the right of voting.

Clause 24.

The proposed section 66 has been redrafted with certain alterations. We did not think it necessary that all rules of business made by the Corporation need be subject to the approval of the Provincial Government. It was, in our opinion, essentially necessary, however, that Government should be provided with copies of the rules framed and should have a right to point out any legal or technical defect and also suggest the framing of new rules. The provisions of the original sub-section (2) have also been expanded to provide Government with powers to make rules in cases of failure of the Corporation to do so.

Clause 25.

In the proposed new section 66A we have limited the proposed power of the Executive Officer to sanction estimates up to Rs. 5,000 only instead of Rs. 10,000 as originally provided, as in our opinion, this would serve the purpose of the clause without conferring too wide a power on the Officer.

Clause 26.

The amendments to the proposed sub-section (2) of section 67 of the Act have been necessitated by the amendments in the proposed new section 66A.

New clause 26A.

In this clause we have proposed insertion of the new section 67A in order to ensure that execution of works or supply of materials involving expenditure over Rs. 1,000 is not undertaken except on the basis of a fair and over-board contract entered into by the Corporation, as the existing "system of cash purchase" is readily amenable to undue influence and improper advantage.

Clause 28.

The slight amendment here is consequential on the earlier amendments in the Bill.

Clause 32.

In amending this clause our object was to let the Corporation have the final say in expanding the scope of primary education although we have left the details of the proposals for such expansion to the recommendation of the Primary Education Standing Committee.

Clause 33.

In amending the proposed sub-clause (1)(bb) we have extended its scope to all concerns of public utility as we thought that the Corporation should have wider latitude in these matters. The amendment in sub-clause (2) is merely consequential.

Clauses 39 and 40.

We have recommended deletion of these clauses as we were of the opinion that these provisions, if enacted and brought into operation, would land the Corporation into difficulties and might also lead to other inequitable results. It is often difficult to realise arrears of consolidated rates from an occupier of land or building when he has left the holding. We were further of opinion that the liability in rem provided in section 205 of the Act should be treated as distinct from the liability in personam provided in section 200 of the Act. We thought, therefore, that the arrears should continue to remain a charge on the land or building. Experience has shown that a provision for realisation to be completed within three years cannot be worked properly and is bound to result in ultimate financial loss to the Corporation. We have, therefore, thought it proper to delete clause 40.

Clauses 41 and 42.

In these two clauses we have considered it desirable to insert a clear provision against permanent closure of "parts of squares or gardens" except under the provisions of the clause. Some consequential changes being necessary in sections 306 and 307 of the Act the clauses had to be recast and redrafted as recommended by us.

Clause 44.

The earlier portion of the proposed new section 365A(1) appeared to us too wide and open to abuse by unscrupulous persons. We have, therefore, limited the scope of the clause. Under our recommendation only those persons who are really affected by any contravention of rules or provisions of this Act, will be entitled to take action under this clause. As an additional safeguard we have inserted the new sub-clause (1a) by requiring the Magistrate to scrutinise an application under this section before proceeding with the case.

Clause 46.

We have deleted the original sub-clause (a) of the proposed proviso as we considered it undesirable for the Executive Officer to take any action over the head of the Corporation. Government measures should be called for only where the Corporation, and not any of its subordinates, has failed to take action and we have amended the rest of the proviso accordingly.

Clause 48.

We have deleted sub-clause (2)(b) as we did not find any sufficient ground for raising the limit of penalty in this case.

CALCUTTA :

The 27th February 1941.

*Signed subject to the minute of dissent, annexed.

NOTE 1.—Signatures of Mr. K. Nooruddin, M.L.A., Mr. Syed Badrudduja, M.L.A., and Mr. Syed Jalaluddin Hashemy, M.L.A., had not been obtained till the time of printing this report.

NOTE 2.—Mr. J. N. Gupta, M.L.A., Mr. Pulin Behary Mallik M.L.A., and Mr. W. C. Wordsworth, M.L.A., were appointed members of the Select Committee by Mr. Speaker under rule 127 of the Bengal Legislative Assembly Procedure Rules in the respective vacancies caused by the resignation by Maharaj Kumar Uday Chand Mahatab, M.L.A., and Mr. Hem Chandra Naskar, M.L.A., of their membership of the Select Committee and by Mr. F. J. Marindin of his membership of the Assembly.

Minute of Dissent by Mr. J. N. Gupta, M.L.A.

While I reserve to myself the right to suggest any amendments I may think fit when the Bill, as amended by the Select Committee, comes before the Assembly, I sign the report subject to the following minute of dissent:—

In clause 18, in sub-section (3) of new section 51A, I consider that the members of the Service Commission should not be appointed on communal basis; hence, I suggest that the fourth and fifth lines be deleted.

Joint Minute of Dissent by Mr. Anukul Chandra Das, M.L.A., and Mr. Pulin Behary Mullick, M.L.A.

We, the undersigned members, sign on Select Committee's Report, subject to the following note of dissent:—

That in clause 17 the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer should not be reserved for the members of the Indian Civil Service, but the same should also be open to the members of the Bengal Civil Service (Executive). Therefore, the original clause (ii) should be retained.

That in clause 18 which deals with section 51A, sub-clause (3), in place of "one a person other than Muhammadan" the following should be inserted "one a person belonging to the Scheduled Castes." This is necessary to safeguard the interest of the Scheduled Castes who have been systematically neglected in the administration of the Calcutta Corporation.

Joint Minute of Dissent by Mr. C. W. Miles, M.L.A., and Mr. W. C. Wordsworth, M.L.A.

We generally approve of the provisions of the Bill and the alterations made by the Select Committee in so far as they relate to the executive and the proceedings of the Corporation, but we find it necessary to record our dissent with regard to the following points:—

(1) We consider that the inclusion of provisions extending the franchise in a Bill the primary object of which is to improve the administration of the Corporation inadvisable and inappropriate. The addition of a large number of new voters to the Electoral Roll will tend to increase the opportunities for the irregularities which have been so marked a feature of recent Corporation elections and will hinder rather than help the main object of the Bill. In our opinion extension of the franchise is a separate problem which should be considered in conjunction with the rules governing the conduct of elections and the preparation of electoral rolls and the statutory provisions relating to elections and dealt with in a separate Bill.

(2) In our opinion clauses 43 and 44 do not touch the root of the undoubtedly unsatisfactory position with regard to the regulation of buildings in Calcutta. The trouble is mainly due to the system of sanctioning building rules and to the fact that the building rules themselves are out of date, and we therefore consider that the provision in clause 44 for filing objections to contraventions of the building rules will be of little value so long as the building rules themselves are not revised and may prove a source of additional trouble. We therefore recommend that these provisions should be omitted from this Bill and that Government should immediately take up the revision of the building rules with a view to introducing a separate amending Bill dealing solely with this question.

(3) Our signature of the Report does not denote our acceptance of (a) the constitution of the Service Commission as laid down in clause 18, new section 51A(3), nor the alteration made by the Select Committee to this sub-clause, and (b) the deletion of clauses 39 and 40.

We reserve the right to move any amendments to the provisions of the Bill we consider proper.

Joint Minute of Dissent by Mee. Hasina Murshed, M.L.A., and Khan Sahib Muhammad Solaiman, M.L.A.

We feel that we cannot sign the Report of the Select Committee without stating our views on certain clauses of the Bill.

Clause 17.—Sub-clause (ii) of the proviso to the proposed new section 51(I) should not in our opinion be deleted. We very strongly feel that this deletion is absolutely uncalled for and the original sub-clause (ii) of the proviso to the proposed new section 51(I) should be restored. We fail to understand why this sub-clause should be deleted at all. If any amendment was needed, the scope of clause 17 might have been extended rather than narrowed down, as it is now sought to be done by deleting the sub-clause (ii) and thereby debarring a class of officers from being appointed Chief Executive Officer who actually form the backbone of administration in the province. It is very curious that in a scheme of Provincial Autonomy provision should be made for the employment of an officer of the Indian Civil Service over whom the Ministers have no control whatsoever. It is, therefore, a retrograde policy to reserve by statute a post for members of the Indian Civil Service over whom the Ministry have no control. Secondly, from the point of view of efficiency, it cannot be said that officers of the Provincial Civil Service are in any way inferior in calibre, in administrative ability and in other respects to the members of the Indian Civil Service as a class. In spite of the very limited opportunities to the members of the Provincial Civil Service, they have held the highest of administrative posts available to them in the province, for instance, posts of Divisional Commissioners have very worthily been filled by the members of that Service. It is extremely unfair therefore to shut out officers of this category by statute. The suggestion for the deletion of the sub-clause, in our opinion, is tantamount to a want of confidence in members of a Service over which we have control and which has for more than a century established a tradition of which it may well be proud.

Clause 40.—We do not agree that clause 40 of the Bill should be deleted. While we appreciate the difficulties which might ensue if clause 40 were enacted, we cannot at the same time give a carte blanche to the Corporation authorities to allow arrears to accumulate through their own indifference and remissness and then make the party liable for such huge arrears of rates and taxes. In our opinion, the deletion of this clause will have the effect of putting a premium on negligence, and we feel that in no case should the Corporation authorities be permitted to realise arrears beyond a certain specified period. There may be a difference of opinion with regard to the period of limitation. If the three years suggested previously be considered to be too small, we suggest that the period be fixed at four. In other words, no rates, etc., will be leviable after the expiry of four years from their becoming due. Four years ought to be enough to enable the Corporation authorities to wake up and to realise their dues. If they do not, the fault certainly lies with the authorities and not with the poor tax-payers. Where is the guarantee that the so-called arrears have not been due to the indifference and negligence on the part of the tax-collectors more than to the unwillingness on the part of the tax-payers to pay? We therefore repeat that we very strongly feel that this sub-clause should be restored, but the period of limitation may be altered to four years.

sub-section (8) of section 29, apply to the High Court for a further scrutiny and recount of votes.

(2) The Court may, if it considers that a further scrutiny and recount of votes are necessary, scrutinise and recount the votes, or cause them to be scrutinised and recounted in its presence, and if the Court is satisfied after such further scrutiny and recount of votes that the number of valid votes given to a candidate has not been correctly scrutinised and counted, it shall, if necessary, set aside the election of such candidate and shall declare the candidate or candidates to whom the largest number of valid votes has been given to have been duly elected.

In the case when on such a further scrutiny and recount of votes an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidates to be duly elected, one additional vote shall be given by the Court to the candidate or the candidates, as the case may be, selected by lot drawn in the presence of the Court in such manner as the Court may determine :

Provided that for the purpose of a recount no vote shall be reckoned as valid if it is found during the scrutiny that any corrupt practice was committed by any person, known or unknown, in giving or obtaining it.

(4) Any decision or order of the High Court under this section shall be final.

(2) If in any such proceeding the High Court is of opinion that the grounds for such proceedings were false and either frivolous or vexatious to the knowledge of the applicant, it may in its discretion direct the applicant to pay to any party objecting to such proceeding costs not exceeding five hundred rupees by way of compensation in addition to other costs, if any, awarded in such proceeding."

Substitution of

THE BENGAL MEDICAL (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1937.

A

BILL

further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, for the purpose hereinafter appearing ;

Ben. Act
VI of 1914.

AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor has been obtained under sub-section (I) of section 119 of the Government of India Act, 1935, to the passing of this Act ;

28 Geo. 5,
Ch. 2.

It is enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. (i) This Act may be called Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937.

Extent and commencement.

(ii) It extends to the whole of Bengal.

(iii) It shall come into force on the day on which it is published in the Calcutta Gazette after having received the assent of the Governor.

2. (i) After section 17 add the following proviso :—

Provided that the Local Government may, after consulting the Council, permit registration of—

(a) any person who shall furnish to the Registrar proof that he is possessed of a medical degree, diploma or certificate of any University, Medical College or School approved by the Council other than those described in the Schedule and is such as was actually practising the western (modern scientific system of Allopathic) medicine before 27th May, 1914,

(b) any person who shall furnish to the Registrar proof that he has obtained proper training in any medical institution approved by the Council and has joined medical profession before the enforcement of the Bengal Medical (Amendment) Act, 1937, provided that he passes a special examination such as the Council may hold for the purpose of granting registration.

(ii) In proviso to section 17 between the word "provided" and the words "that the Council" the word "further" shall be added.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Bengal Medical Act (Act VI of 1914) was passed in 1914. But unlike similar Acts in the Punjab, the United Provinces, Burma, Bombay and even in England it did not provide for the permanent relief of the then medical practitioners actually practising in the province. In lieu of this the Government of Bengal only provided temporarily for a limited number of trained men to obtain the registrable qualifications by passing examination. This transitory provision is, however, quite inadequate. Many of the medical practitioners, who lived abroad at that time or who remained in the remotest corners of the interior villages and were not aware of the privilege, had been left out. These unregistered practitioners are not now deemed qualified and are not even considered fit to certify their patients' illness or to procure requisite medicines for their patients. Thus the present All-India Medical Mission have come into existence. It was through their efforts that legislation on the subject was tried several times without success. It is now time to consider the matter afresh and some permanent relief is to be given to these poor medical practitioners.

The Medical Act (Act VI of 1914), while restricting the registration of medical practitioners did not restrict the establishment of private medical institutions. Some of these unrecognised institutions have since been recognised. But the students who completed their course of education therein and began to practise before such recognition have been left in the lurch. Therefore it is found that there are two sets of good doctors trained at the same institutions, one set of whom are unqualified for want of registration, while another set are qualified by registration. It is but fair and equitable that such students should be given another opportunity of being qualified.

Other medical institutions still unrecognised are producing medical practitioners. In order to qualify them they should also be given a chance to appear in another Licentiate examination similar to that of 1916.

It is to do away with the disabilities of these medical practitioners and to enable them to get their names entered in the "Register of Registered Practitioners" that this amendment to the Bengal Medical Act (Act VI of 1914) is required.

Provided that if in any estate the average rate of revenue per acre is found to be two rupees or more, the rate of annual rent payable by a raiya may be more, but shall not exceed by more than fifty per cent. the average rate of revenue in that estate.

4. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties the rent payable for a holding by an under-raiya to the raiya who is his immediate landlord, shall not exceed, by more than fifty per cent., the rent payable by the raiya to his immediate landlord in respect of the land comprised in the under-raiya holding.

5. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties the rent payable for a holding by an under-raiya of the second or a still lower grade to his immediate landlord shall not exceed, by more than ten per cent., the rent payable by his immediate landlord in respect of the land comprised in such under-raiya holding of the second or a still lower grade.

6. Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary between the parties, the rent payable by the tenure-holder or by the under-tenure-holder of any grade to his immediate landlord will be reduced in proportion to the reduction, if any, made in the rent payable by the raiya in that tenure.

The Bengal Rent Reduction (Temporary Provisions) Bill, 1940.(Clauses 7—10.)

7. After the commencement of this Act, the court, on an application made for reducing rent in accordance with the provisions of this Act, by a tenant whose rent is in excess of the rent as provided by this Act, shall reduce the same in accordance with the provisions of this Act :

Provided that no court shall make any such order unless notice of the application has been served to all the immediate landlords.

8. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any estate or holding in which the rates of rent are found to be lower than the rates as provided by this Act.

9. Nothing in this Act shall apply to any tenant who holds land under the Government or who holds land at a rent fixed in perpetuity.

10. The provisions of this Act shall not be affected by anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The most burning question of Bengal to-day is the excessive rent imposed upon the rai-yats by their landlords. In many cases all over Bengal heavy rents imposed upon rai-yats are now much beyond their economic capacity. In fact, in a great many estates rents have been enhanced to such exorbitant amounts that the lands of rai-yats have been rapidly passing away from their hands, as a result of which a large number of rai-yats of this province have already left their lands and have been compelled to take shelter in the jungles of Assam. As an instance of excessive rental of an estate, it may be quoted here that the revenue of Aila Tearkhali and Fuljhuri Estate in the district of Bakarganj is Rs. 372-3-8, while the total demand of rents from rai-yats of this estate amounts to Rs. 92,987-7-5. The rates of rents existing in many individual rai-yati holdings in certain permanently-settled areas in the district of Mymensingh have been found to be as high as Rs. 16 or so per acre, while the average revenue is only three annas two pies per acre throughout the whole district. In the district of Howrah the rates of rai-yati rents have been found to be surprisingly excessive. These rates have gone up to Rs. 25 or so per acre in certain estates. Instances of excessive rents are a legion. It goes without saying that no rent legislation on a very fair and equitable basis is possible for the cultivators without doing away with the permanent settlement and all other intermediate rights by State acquisition as has been contemplated by the Land Revenue Commission. The mover of this Bill believes that it would not be feasible to carry out a scheme of State acquisition of all those rights in less than 20 years, so an ad interim legislation for such a period for reduction of high rent is urgently required in anticipation of a better and all-round rent legislation in future, so that no more lands may pass away from the hands of rai-yats on account of their heavy rents. The Land Revenue Commission has already submitted an elaborate report and has recommended reduction of rent where it is high. The Commission has also made the striking remark that if any reduction of rent is contemplated by Government, it should be made before acquiring the interests of proprietors and tenure-holders.

From a note of dissent struck by a prominent member of Commission, it is found that the average rate of rent in Bengal has increased by nearly 160 per cent. since the time of granting permanent settlement. Moreover, no Zemindar has up till now done any work of agricultural improvement worth the name. The Commission has also found that the yield of rice in Bengal is low in comparison with other provinces and countries. From the Commission's enquiry it also transpires that the average revenue per acre is surprisingly low in the major portion of the permanently-settled areas in this province. This average revenue per acre varies from 6 pies to 15 annas, 9 pies only, in 22 districts and rises up to 1 rupee, 14 annas, 7 pies only, in the remaining few districts. Cultivators of Bengal are also hopelessly indebted. Besides, they have no subsidiary occupation and agricultural price, too, has gone down to a lower level. Considering all these facts, the high rents of Bengal should be reduced to the paying capacity of the cultivators as proposed by the mover.

The most prominent features of this Bill are clauses 3 and 4 which seek to reduce high rents and provide for the maximum limits to rents payable by the rai-yats and under-rai-yats who are the actual cultivators. Clause 3 fixes the maximum limit of rai-yati rent to Rs. 3 per acre of cultivated land in all the estates where the average revenue falls below Rs. 2 per acre. As the average revenue per acre in permanently-settled areas is less than Re. 1 in 22 districts, this rate would be the prevailing fair rate in most parts of the province. The Commission has found that in Bengal the average rai-yati rent per acre of cultivated area in Government estates is Rs. 3-1-10 and the average rate of rai-yati rent per acre in permanently-settled areas is Rs. 3 and in Madras the recognised Government rates of rai-yati rents for unirrigated lands are only Re. 1 to Re. 1-4 per acre. Considering all these rates, the maximum rates as provided in this Bill can be taken as comparatively fair and tolerable rates in Bengal which is mostly an unirrigated province. Clause 5 has been provided to discourage too much sub-letting. The Bill does not recommend any reduction of rent in areas where the rates would be found lower than the rates proposed in this Bill inasmuch as the rents prevailing in those areas are presumed to be not excessive. As Government has got inherent power to reduce high rents in Government lands, all such lands have been excluded from the purview of this Bill. Government has also undertaken to bring a separate Bill for giving adequate relief to the non-agricultural tenants, hence non-agricultural lands too have been excluded from this Bill. The mover cannot but mention here that the discretionary power given to courts under sections 38 (1b) and 112 of the Bengal Tenancy Act is of no avail to the poor and illiterate cultivators in seeking real remedy against the influential landlords.

Finally, it may be added here that any loss of existing cesses in consequence of the proposed reduction of rent may be recouped if required by readjusting such cesses on acreage basis instead of rupee basis.

In view of the aforesaid reasons, the mover of this Bill intends to introduce this ad interim measure into the Legislature to give immediate relief to the rack-rented cultivators of this province as has been done in Behar.

THE BENGAL MARRIAGE DOWRY PROHIBITION BILL, 1940.

A BILL

to prohibit the custom of payment of marriage dowry prevalent in Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to prohibit payments made or agreed to be made as a part of contract of marriage, it is enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Marriage Dowry Prohibition Act of 1940.

(ii) It shall come into force as soon as it receives the assent of the Governor-General and Viceroy.

(iii) It extends to the whole of Bengal. The provisions of this Act shall apply to Hindus and Moslems of Bengal only.

Definition.

2. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context.

“Dowry ” means anything paid or agreed to be paid in cash or in kind to a person betrothed or married or to a parent or any other relation or guardian of such person and vice versa in connection with or in consequence of the betrothal or marriage :

Provided that voluntary marriage gifts such as ornaments to brides and dresses to bridegrooms are not within the meaning of this definition :

Provided further that nothing in this Act applies to payments of “Mohar” to brides or other religious obligations enjoined in Hindu or Muhammadan laws.

“Marriage” means a marriage both according to Hindu and Moslem laws.

“Payment ” means payments in kind or cash.

3. No person shall offer or accept or make a contract to offer or accept any payment as marriage dowry.

4. Whoever contravenes the provisions of section 3 shall on conviction be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fines which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both :

6. An offence under section 3 or section 4 of this Act shall be a cognizable offence to be tried by a First Class Magistrate.

An appeal shall lie to the Sessions Judge or the High Court as the case may be from all orders of conviction under this Act.

7. The Provincial Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The aims and objects of this Bill are well known to the public of Bengal and specially to the members of this House. It is sufficient to say that the present dowry system of Bengal ruined and have been still ruining many flourishing Hindu families. Recently, it has begun to attack the well-to-do families of the Moslem community and time is not far off when its infectious germs will enter into the bones of the poorer section and thus shall complete the annihilation of the poor Moslem community of Bengal. Hindu parents might have some justification in the past to provide their daughters with due shares of their earnings in the honest and bonâ fide belief that after their deaths their daughters would not inherit their properties and treatment of their sons towards their sisters might not be what common custom of humanity demands. But Muhammadan parents have no justification whatsoever to yield any concession to their sons-in-laws who are entitled to enjoy the properties of their wives who inherit the properties of their parents.

Islam has allowed highest respect and status for women—the mother sex, but the vicious attack of this dowry system has begun to lower that value; so it is religious obligations of the Moslem legislators to support this Bill and thus help to abolish this dowry system.

section 32.

5. After clause (f) of sub-section (2) of section 32 of the said Act the following clauses shall be inserted, namely :—

- “(ff1) for prescribing the procedure relating to the reference of medical questions to medical referees under sub-section (1) of section 24A ;
- (ff2) for regulating the procedure relating to the medical examination of a workman by a medical referee and the submission of the report of such medical referee, under sub-section (2) of section 24A ;
- (ff3) for prescribing and determining the fees and expenses payable in connection with references of medical questions to medical referees under section 24A ;”.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of this Bill is to amend the Bengal Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (VIII of 1923) in its application to Bengal to provide for the appointment of official medical referees to whom any medical questions in dispute between employers and workmen may be referred by the Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation for a report and whose report shall be binding on both parties.

2. This measure is intended to do away with the usual practice of calling in private medical practitioners by both employers and workmen to give verbal evidence on the points under dispute and the necessity of engaging medical assessors by the Commissioner for Workmen's Compensation.

3. Not only it is expected that this measure will considerably decrease the expenditure on both sides but also shorten considerably workmen's compensation proceedings.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Ramna, the 27th February 1941.

Second Forecast of the Spring Oilseed Crops of Bengal, 1940-41.

(Note.—On an average of the five years ending 1938-39, the area under linseed in Bengal has represented some 3·3 per cent. and that of rape and mustard 12·9 per cent. of the total area under these crops in India.)

Character of the season.—Excepting in some parts of the province, the weather conditions have been unfavourable throughout owing to drought which has adversely affected the growth of the crops.

Area sown.—Oilseeds are chiefly grown in the Dacca, Rajshahi and Presidency Divisions. In the other two divisions the cultivation is not extensive. The total area under these crops (excepting sesamum for which separate forecasts are issued) is returned at 951,100 acres this year as against 964,600 and 965,200 acres respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Outturn.—From the District Officers' estimates the average outturn of the different oilseed crops for the province works out at 67 per cent. of the normal as against 76 and 73 per cent. reported respectively in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.
